

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3261-The Fox stared at Evan with a dark face.

Evan spread his hands towards her and said, "What I said is true. Let me take it out now. I really don't remember where I put it, and I can't take it out. How about you go in and see if you can find it? Or you can strip me n*ked and see if there's anything hidden in me."

The Fox jumped down from the wall.

Evan tensed up immediately and opened his arms to catch her, but was kicked by her as she jumped down. He took a few steps back after being kicked by her, but did not catch her.

She landed firmly in front of him.

Evan breathed a sigh of relief.

Although he was kicked by her and it hurt a little, he didn't seem to care. He just patted the place where he was kicked to remove the footprints.

"My wall is quite high. Don't jump down from it. What if you lose your footing and fall?" Evan talked about her.

"You can fall, but I won't." Fox said it angrily.

She stretched out her hand and grabbed Evan's collar. With a tug, Evan was pulled forward by her.

Evan didn't struggle, and he let her pull.

She ran her hands through his pockets and trouser pockets but found nothing except his cell phone and wallet.

She opened his wallet, and her face darkened. There was a small photo of her stuffed in his wallet. It should be that he secretly photographed her, posted it, and then stuffed it in his wallet.

When did he secretly take photos of her?

She only had a few interactions with him, and she really didn't notice that he secretly took photos of her.

Without thinking, she pulled out the small photo and asked him, "When did you secretly take the photo? Evan, are you polite enough to secretly take a photo of me like this and hide my photo in your wallet? That's a sneaky act. Like a thief, the Youk family's good reputation will be ruined by you."

Evan smiled, his face a little red.

When he saw her for the first time, he didn't expect that the woman he had been entangled with in his dream for so long would actually exist in reality, so he secretly photographed her.

The photo was posted later. He was attracted to her, so he posted the photo and put it in his wallet.

That way, he could see her every time he opened his wallet.

When he sent someone to investigate her, he also used the photos he took for the first time and gave them to his people to investigate her.

That is, her name and residence were not found. The people he sent to check on her were put in sacks and beaten by her. She asked his people to come back to him with a message.

If he dared to check on her again, it would be more than just a beating.

When Evan saw the bodyguard, who had been beaten with a bruised face and swollen nose, he was stunned. He didn't expect that this girl's boxing and kicking skills were so powerful.

His bodyguards didn't dare say they could compete with Jim and the others, but they were all good at boxing and kicking. Several of them were beaten until their faces were bruised and their noses were swollen, which showed how powerful she was.

Evan apologized to her, "It's my fault. This is my personal behavior. Don't let it escalate to involve my entire York family."

“You’ve done this twice, Evan! You secretly filmed me, took my things, and I chased you all the way, but you didn’t give it back to me. I don’t believe a word of the nonsense you just said.”

The things he took from her were not big, but they were very important and meaningful to her, so she had to chase him to get them back.

If it weren’t for this, he would just take it and give it to her for the sake of the old lady in the York family.
