

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3263-Jake looked at Evan again. Then he walked toward the house facing the Fox.

Evan touched his nose, laughed softly, and then followed into the villa and headed to the main house.

The hall of the main house was brightly lit, as bright as day.

Jake had already invited the girl in red to sit down on the sofa.

Feeling hot after entering the room, the Fox took off her long red coat, folded it, and placed it beside her.

When Evan came in, Jake had already poured a glass of warm water for the Fox.

He motioned to Jake to rest while he came to greet the guests.

Jake said in a low voice, "Fourth Young Master, be a gentleman and be gentle. This is not how you coax a girl."

Evan also responded in a low voice, "I didn't coax her."

Jake chuckled twice and walked away without reffing him.

Fourth Young Master, just be tough.

If a girl who was willing to invite her home said that the fourth young master was not attracted to her, no one would believe it.

The fourth young master was also a failure. Jake heard from the driver that he had met her several times, but he didn't know her name. He only knew that her nickname was Fox.

When he saw a girl, he screamed like a Fox. People who didn't know might think he liked animals called foxes.

Evan felt that Jake's had multiple meanings.

Jake walked away. Evan couldn't ask him again, and the Fox was still there.

He went to wash some fruit for the distinguished guest, put it on a fruit plate, took it out, and placed it on the coffee table. "Eat some fruit. I usually don't like snacks. There are no snacks or desserts at home, only fruits. Do you like sweets? If so, I will prepare some in the future so that you can have something to eat when you come over."

Evan sat down opposite her.

Looking at her pretty face, his eyes were a little fiery, but he didn't know it.

"Evan, where are the things? Don't lie to me. You have a good memory, and it's impossible to forget. How can you be willing to return the things to me? It was left to me by my elders, and it means a lot to me. Give me my things back, and I promise not to trouble you in the future, and I'll give you peace of mind."

She didn't come to Wiltspoon often; she was so busy.

Evan picked up a piece of fruit pulp with his fork and handed it to her. With stern eyes and a smile, he said, "Eat some fruit. I'll look for it later and send it to you if I find it. Where do you live? Can't you tell me, what's your name?"

The Fox took the fork from Evan's hand and ate the piece of fruit gracefully.

Then Evan would eat the pulp himself.

After eating several pieces, she put down her fork, looked directly at Evan, whose pretty face was frosty, and said coldly, "Evan, stop playing tricks on me. You take my things because you want me to come see you from time to time. You also want to know my name and where I live. I didn't expect you to be so shameless."

Evan wasn't angry after what she said; he still smiled.

Evan said, "Sometimes, I am shameless, but sometimes, why do I need shame?"

What did grandma say about pursuing his wife with shame?

If he wanted a face, he couldn't chase his wife.

Zachary lowered his arrogant head for the sake of Serenity. He was extremely shameless and was often slapped in the face. In exchange for the happy life that today is extremely enviable,.

Evan felt it was worth it. Therefore, he was shameless.
