

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3281-Tinsley knew that Elora had misunderstood her again after seeing her smile like this.

She didn't even bother to explain.

She said that she just admired Tatum, and the meals and snacks cooked by Tatum were all to her liking.

Not only did she enjoy the food, but Elora didn't say anything.

Anyway, in the two days since Tatum took office, Elora had not found any fault with his cooking.

"The dishes made by Tatum remain the same, but the taste he makes is hard to fault. He shares the same age as me and has achieved significant success in the culinary arts. I have to admit that he is talented. And he also studied the recipes very carefully."

Elora gave Tatum a rare compliment and affirmed his cooking skills.

Tinsley said, "Uncle Joly said that the luggage he brought, except for a few sets of clothes, contained recipes from various major cuisines."

The recipe may be the same, but everyone's taste is unique. Some people make it delicious, and others make it beautiful, but the taste and heat are just a little bit different.

Tinsley added, "He said that he has liked cooking since he was a child. This is a person's hobby. It is better if you can turn your hobby into a career and carry it forward."

Tinsley had always had a good impression of Tatum.

Tinsley reiterated, "Alonzo typically struggles to wake up on his own. These two days, he got up early by himself. He promised to have Tatum's breakfast before heading to school."

Elora was quite pleased.

Her father and several uncles worked hard for decades, but they could only produce two men.

Alonzo, her biological brother, was the first male of their generation, so everyone genuinely loved him.

Alonzo received affection from his parents, uncles, aunts, and the rest of his clan.

Once pampered, children tend to be willful and difficult to discipline.

Elora is particularly strict with Alonzo, preventing him from receiving his elders' guidance. What Alonzo fears most is Elora.

Although Alonzo would occasionally be willful, he did not become a naughty child with her under her control.

Even children didn't want to get up in the morning, especially in winter, when the room was very warm and Alonzo didn't want to go to school.

It was hard to get him out of bed.

It had only been two or three days since Tatum officially started work, and the temptation from his food was so great that Alonzo could get up early.

"Ha ha." Tinsley laughed. "Alonzo is a real foodie and will become Tatum's fanboy in the future."

Tatum was good-looking and well-educated, and there seemed to be an aura of nobility in his every move.

He was also a very patient person. It was not surprising to Tinsley that Alonzo would become Tatum's fan. She was also Tatum's fan.

"knock, knock."

There was a knock on the door.

"Sister, I'll open the door."

Guessing that lunch was coming, Tinsley went to open the door.

Tatum borrowed the company's cafeteria to cook, and he brought the ingredients from home, so Elora can actually eat there.

Tatum insisted on sending it to her office so that she could rest in there after eating, which would save her some time.

Tatum said that he had his own business and was the boss. He knew that the heads of large companies are under great pressure and have a very tight time. They even have to squeeze in time to go to the bathroom.

Maybe he only has two minutes to spare while eating. Sometimes he spends the entire meal discussing business with clients.

Elora's lunch break was not long—only half an hour. If the meal time can be shortened, then her lunch break time can be increased by ten or twenty minutes. Even though she has not yet married, she still has to take care of herself.
