

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3284-This was really hard to say. The primary reason for this was Tatum's statement that he founded his own business and now owns several companies. His temperament, appearance, conversation, and behavior all convey a sense of excellence, leading her parents to question her intentions.

Her parents are reluctant to allow her to marry far away, and she is unwilling to marry far away. However, when they become anxious, they may consider allowing Tatum to visit their home.

"No, how could my uncle and aunt ask me to say these things? Tatum has only been at work for a few days, and everyone doesn't know or is familiar with him yet." Tinsley said with a smile, "I read novels at night when I have insomnia. I am so sensitive that I can't help but insert myself into the novel's plot."

Elora said, "You still have insomnia! It implies that you are not busy enough. I'll leave it to you to follow up on the project with Wordisk."

Tinsley said, "Sister, I don't want to work with Wordisk on that project. The person in charge of this project is Memphis Webster. That kid has not dealt with me since he was a child."

Elora said, "How did Memphis get into Wordisk? Oh, yes, Wordisk's boss is his uncle. He refused to obey his brother's discipline in the Webster family and ran away. Now he has entered Wordisk."

Tinsley said, "Memphis is a ruffian and doesn't look like a serious person. When I see him, I want to fight him and ask him to keep up on this project. I'm afraid that he will deliberately make things difficult for me. But he doesn't dare to be presumptuous in front of you. He is very serious. I've never seen him act seriously in front of anyone. Even his sister can control him, but even his brother can't."

Tinsley felt that Elora was very majestic, with a pretty face that was calm yet majestic, and her eyes were always like a sword, very sharp, which made people panic, so she did not dare to be presumptuous in front of her.

Tinsley said, "Sister, I promise, I won't brag in front of you in the future. I won't think about it or make it up, okay? I'm actually very busy too. Sister, you know how busy I am. Don't leave Wordisk's projects to me. I don't want to deal with Memphis Webster."

Elora smiled half-heartedly. "I didn't even know that Memphis took over that project, but you knew about it, which shows that you two care about each other."

“Annenburg is not big or small; everyone is in the same circle, and it is easy to look up but not down. I have grown up, and I don’t have to deal with him, so I have to pay more attention. I accidentally bumped into his hand, or he bumped into mine. There’s no good fruit in that.”

If Tinsley faced Memphis, she would be very fierce and would not show mercy.

During the fight, her fists and kicks were not as good as Memphis’s. She was like a madman, trying her best to beat Memphis until he gave up.

She knew that she would not win a fight, and she would be bullied to death by Memphis in the future.

That ruffian was very bad.

Elora said, “Tomorrow, I’m going on a business trip. I can’t help you if you don’t follow up on Wordisk’s project. I’m not free.”

Tinsley: “...”

Memphis Webster was not from Annenburg, but his mother was a native of Annenburg, and his uncle was the boss of Wordisk. He had liked to live in his uncle’s house since he was a child, and he also studied here in Annenburg, just like the Ormond family. The rich people knew each other.

He was born in the same year, same month, and same day as Tinsley; adults said it was fate.

Tinsley thought it was bad luck. Ever since she met Memphis, the two of them had never dealt with each other.

The oldest male of Ormond’s generation, Alonzo, was only six years old. Tinsley was eighteen or nineteen years older than Alonzo. Therefore, for a long time, it was easy for the daughter of the Ormond family to walk outside. They were so bullied that they had no brothers.

It was Elora who took over strongly and stabilized the Ormond family’s business, making the Ormond family’s position in Annenburg unshakable. The other young ladies walked outside and were no longer bullied.
