

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3287-Tatum and Joly came in the same car.

On the way back, Tatum asked Joly, "When a young lady goes on a business trip, do you usually stay in a hotel or can you buy a house and live by yourself?"

Joly said, "The eldest lady did not say where she was going on this business trip. If there is a branch, they usually have their own house. The eldest lady used to live in her own house. The house may not be large, but it will accommodate workers and other daily necessities. There will be no shortage.

If she simply goes over to discuss cooperation with others, she will live in a hotel. Even if she lives in a hotel, she will stay in the presidential suite. She can cook for herself. When you go on a business trip with her, just bring everything you need. "If you can't cook, she won't take you there."

Tatum thought for a while and said, "That's right. I'll pack it up first when I get back. I don't need to bring much, just some seasonings. I'll buy the ingredients over there."

It was really inconvenient to carry food with them when they were on a business trip.

Joly just reminded Tatum, "When buying vegetables, you must buy fresh ones. If you list the ingredients you need to buy, I will arrange for their delivery.

Tatum wanted to say that it would cost too much money.

The words reached his lips, and he swallowed them back.

The Ormond family's financial resources were quite good, on par with the York family's. Elora was the head of the family, and the benefits she reaped from a business trip were immeasurable. It didn't matter if the family spent some money on her, as long as they didn't keep her hungry.

Tatum said, "That's okay. This can better ensure the safety of the ingredients. "If I go on a business trip with the eldest lady and buy my own groceries, since I'm not staying for a long time or just for a few days, I'll probably choose the vegetable market."

His sister-in-law, Serenity, ran a vegetable company. Even though the amount of pesticides used in her vegetable market was relatively small, she still needed to spray pesticides. There was no way around this. Large vegetable markets provided the majority of the vegetables for sale in the vegetable market.

There is a difference between vegetables sold at the market and those grown by oneself. Vegetables grown by oneself are truly green and pollution-free.

Elora had a picky mouth, and she was very demanding of even a vegetable.

A sophisticated eater can detect changes in the seasoning or the absence of an ingredient.

Therefore, when cooking for Elora, the vegetables must be green and pollution-free.

Those in the Ormond family manor were in charge of making the purchases. Since there had been no issues with the ingredients they had purchased, they could proceed with the preparation. As usual, Tatum only needed to make a list of the ingredients he needed and give it to Joly.

Joly will arrange for someone to purchase it and send it to him.

Come to think of it, the Ormond family has a private jet, right?

It seemed that Elora told Tatum that she wanted to go to the airport together. Wasn't there a private plane?

Tatum didn't have to make assumptions or worry about this. He just needed to pack his things and follow Elora out.

"Tatum, the eldest lady, used to go on business trips for only one or two days, so she never brought a chef with her. This time, she's taking you out. I think the business trip will be longer—at least more than three days. It's up to you to take care of the eldest lady. The eldest lady is still capable of taking care of herself. She's just too busy and doesn't do many things."

Tatum said, "Uncle Joly, don't worry, I will definitely take good care of the eldest lady."

His grandmother arranged for her to be his wife. Whether he is in love or not is another matter. Of course, he has to take good care of his wife.

Joly hummed, "The eldest lady is very satisfied with the food you cooked. If you go on a business trip with the eldest lady, at least she will eat three meals a day, so you don't have to worry. Two female bodyguards surround the eldest lady. When it comes to daily life, the eldest lady should leave it to the female bodyguards. You can still be responsible for the eldest lady's three meals a day."
