

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3291-Camryn laughed. "If your parents hear what you said, they will be sad and say that you, a son, have no conscience. Why don't your parents love you anymore? It's because they love you that they treat me so well. They call this "loving the house and the bird."

Camryn's parents-in-law really loved her because she was their daughter-in-law.

They loved their son and looked forward to his small family's happiness, so they were particularly kind to her daughter-in-law.

Camryn thought that God was still kind to her. God had abused her for more than twenty years, but finally gave her warmth.

Let her marry Callum and have her parents-in-law love her as their own daughter.

Storms would not destroy her for the rest of her life. She had her husband's family to support her and protect her from wind and rain.

She was especially grateful to Grandma May. She was unaware of her virtues, but while she was still blind, her grandmother took a special interest in her and assigned her to Callum.

She was also grateful that Callum had never disliked her. He never disliked her, whether it was because she was blind before or because she is unable to have children now. He tolerated and loved her as usual.

In the past, her aunt, Evelyn, would call her from time to time to worry about her.

Since she married Callum, it was her turn to call her little aunt Evelyn. Evelyn was no longer worried about her and knew that she would live a good life.

"It smells so good. What delicious food did you make?" As soon as Camryn entered the house, she smelled the aroma of food. She asked Callum as she walked to the dining hall.

Callum said, "I know you will be hungry when you come back. I didn't go to work in the afternoon and cooked delicious food for you at home. I was scolded by my older brother. In fact, he is jealous of me."

Camryn laughed and said, "Older Brother will not be jealous of you. The relationship between him and sister-in-law is very good. I don't know how many people would envy you."

She entered the dining hall and saw a table full of delicious dishes. She was already hungry and felt even hungrier.

She picked up her chopsticks and ate a handful of vegetables first.

In the past, she would not have been so presumptuous.

Callum walked in and said with a smile, "Go wash your hands first, and I'll serve you a bowl of soup."

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard Trenton's voice coming from outside the house: "Sister, brother-in-law, I'm back. It's winter vacation. I'm back."

Callum: "..."

He and Camryn were briefly separated for a few days, and Camryn had just come back. He thought of feeding her first and letting her feed him later.

My brother-in-law, Trenton, was actually back!

It was still winter vacation.

Did he start his winter vacation so early? Schools in Wiltspoon wouldn't have a holiday until next week.

Oh, Trenton was studying in college away from home, and vacation times vary from place to place.

Camryn: "Trenton is back."

"Sister." Trenton came in with his suitcase. When he saw Camryn, he immediately left the suitcase behind and quickly came over and gave her a hug. "Sister, I'm on winter vacation."

Callum looked at this scene unhappily. Even the siblings, Trenton and Camryn, were hugging each other, and Callum found it very annoying.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3292-After Trenton let go of his sister, Callum had a smile on his face again. Neither sister nor brother knew that this guy was so jealous just now.

"It's winter vacation, so soon." Camryn looked at Trenton and saw that he was not thin but had grown stronger and was a little more mature than before. He was very satisfied with his changes after going to college.

“Well, as soon as the holiday came, I immediately packed up my things and took the high-speed rail back. When I came back, I saw your car at home. I asked the butler and he said that you had just returned from the company. Sister, everything is going well.”

Trenton also owned a share of Newman’s enterprise, and he trusted Camryn, so he just asked casually.

He didn’t understand business matters yet and had no experience, so he wouldn’t ask too many questions.

Camryn said, “Everything went well. It’s good to be back. Wash your hands and eat first. I just got home too.”

Trenton called Callum brother-in-law again.

Just a few minutes later,

After Callum used serving chopsticks to pick up a few chopsticks of food for Camryn, he asked his brother-in-law, “Trenton, don’t you plan to find a temporary job after the winter vacation? Accumulate some social experience and earn some pocket money.”

Trenton was not short of money. But Callum just wanted Trenton to find a temporary job so that he wouldn’t have to sit at home and act like a light bulb every day, blocking his and Camryn’s love lives.

Trenton said, “The New Year is not far away, and I can only go to work for a few days before I take the annual leave.”

Camryn said, “Let him rest at home and just invite his classmates to get together.”

Trenton said, “I have to go to work. Sister, you will arrange a temporary job for me. I will go to work for our company. In the future, I will help you share the burden. I have to study. Every winter and summer vacation, I have to work as a temporary worker in the company.”

He didn’t expect to make much money. He just wanted to gain some experience and understand his own business.

Camryn said, “It’s almost the New Year; do you still want to go to work? When you come back, you don’t have to go see your parents or look for your second sister. Recently, there has been no news about your second sister. I don’t know what happened to her. That’s it.”

She didn’t care about Carrie; she just wanted to know if she could be Mrs. Labbe. Serenity said that Mrs. Labbe has not appeared in the past two or three days.

Before Trenton spoke, Callum took over. "There is still some time before the New Year. At the end of the year, many companies are very busy. Trenton is motivated and wants to know about his family's business, so it's okay to do odd jobs in the company to earn some pocket money.

He'll have to take care of his own business in the future. It will definitely be beneficial and harmless to let him get in touch early. Camryn, If you can't bear to let Trenton go so far, I will arrange for Trenton to go to the York Clan for training. The distance is close, and you don't have to worry about him. I can also watch over him every day."

As long as Trenton has to go to work, he can't be a light bulb every day. Even if he joined the York Corporation as a temporary worker, it was not easy. He was asked to work overtime every day. Even if he wanted to be a light bulb and light the way for his sister and brother-in-law, he had no chance.

Both her husband and brother said this: What else could Camryn do?

Camryn said, "Trenton, then go to your brother-in-law's home company to hone your skills. It's close to home. Your brother-in-law can also help you if anything happens."

Trenton wanted to join his own company. However, most of his family's business was in other provinces and cities, and he wanted to work for his own company, which was far away from home, so Camryn was worried.

He was also afraid that when he wanted to go home, he could even buy high-speed rail tickets.

It was not bad to be a temporary worker at the York Corporation. He knew how many people wanted to join the York Corporation, but they didn't have a chance.

Trenton thanked Camryn, and he was able to enter through his brother-in-law's back door. He said, "Then I'll listen to my brother-in-law. Brother-in-law, you can arrange a job for me in two days. It doesn't matter if I do odd jobs. I have no work experience. I don't dare to ask for a high position. As long as I have a classmate, it will be fine."

Even if you ask him to be a cleaner, he will do it. After all, it was the York Corporation, not an ordinary small factory.

He was a rookie with no experience at all. What did he expect? It would be great if he could get in.

