

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3321-"Uncle Jimenez, Ah Harlow's eldest daughter, Liberty, has gone to Jensburg. She is now developing in Jensburg, so you won't be able to see her for a while."

Audrey said it warmly. She knew the reason why Uncle Jimenez looked at Elisa more. Uncle Jimenez was probably worried that no one from her mother's lineage could take over the Farrell family.

Uncle Jimenez was the most loyal. He believed that the Farrell family was from the lineage of his head.

Even though Clarissa, the current matriarch, had been the head of the family for more than forty years, Uncle Jimenez still did not recognize Clarissa's legal status.

Clarissa didn't want Uncle Jimenez to live, but she just felt that Uncle Jimenez was alive. She always felt that she was sitting in the wrong position. Without Uncle Jimenez, her sisters would all be dead. It was only natural for her to take over the Farrell family.

It seems justified.

"Serenity is on her way here. You will be able to see her later."

"Serenity looks more like her father, and Liberty looks more like Harlow. Liberty's son, Sonny, looks very much like Harlow when he was a child. If he puts on a skirt and puts on two pigtales, he will look even more like her."

Liberty was so fat that she lost her original shape, so Audrey never found her sister.

The old assistant nodded happily. "I know everything. My friends told me."

Audrey solemnly thanked several elderly people.

She thanked them for saving Uncle Jimenez's life and allowing her and Uncle Jimenez to reunite after decades of separation.

Uncle Jimenez was still alive today, thanks to their care over the years.

Although there was not much evidence in Uncle Jimenez's hands, Uncle Jimenez existed like a family member in Audrey's heart. Now that they can see each other again, it is like finding a family member. These are all the works of the old miracle doctor and others.

As a junior member of her loyal uncle, she naturally wanted to express her gratitude to several seniors.

“You’re welcome, Miss Audrey. We also appreciate my brother’s loyalty, so we meddled in other matters and saved his life. We haven’t done enough. If we had confirmed that Miss Audrey was in Wiltspoon earlier, we could have changed the outcome of many things.”

Audrey said, “How can you blame the seniors? I have only recently determined my life experience.”

Her memory was that no one in her family was left. She and her sister were constantly being transferred, and finally the people who protected them died, and the two sisters ended up in an orphanage in Wiltspoon.

At that time, the incident happened suddenly, and the two sisters, at a young age, had no idea of the truth of the tragedy.

She has experienced too much, and she also has some memory loss. Needless to say, her sister, Harlow, will not be able to remember it, even if she is alive.

“Fortunately, God has eyes.” Audrey said gratefully, “Let us meet again.”

She took her family to express her gratitude to several seniors once again.

At this time, a servant came in and said respectfully to Audrey, “Madam, Young Master York and Young Mistress are here.”

“Please quickly.”

No need to invite Serenity got out of the car and hurried to the house.

Zachary quickly followed her and whispered to her, “Seren, slow down and be careful.”

She still carried the fruit of their love in her belly.

As if Serenity didn’t hear his instructions, a gust of wind blew into the room and landed in front of Audrey and others.

“Old sir.”

Serenity recognized the old miracle doctor, and when he saw the old miracle doctor present, he first greeted him respectfully.

The old miracle doctor nodded, smiled, and said, “Miss York, long time no see.”

He looked at Serenity's face and thought he was very good. When he got home, he could tell Jane that Serenity was well taken care of by the York family.

Zachary doted on his wife.

He heard that the men of the York family were all slaves to their wives, and they doted on their wives very much.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3322-Just like the men in his son-in-law's family, no wonder the two families had close contacts; they were the same kind of people.

"Old sir." Zachary also greeted the old miracle doctor respectfully.

The old miracle doctor nodded again.

Then, he introduced several old friends to Zachary and Serenity.

Finally, he pointed at Uncle Jimenez and said to Serenity, "Miss York, this big brother of mine is the person you have been looking for. Your aunt calls him Uncle Jimenez."

"Old sir, just call me Serenity." Serenity looked at Uncle Jimenez and said hello, "Grandpa Jimenez."

Serenity was a junior and had never met the old assistant, and the old assistant had never met her.

Therefore, neither Serenity nor old assistant were as excited as Audrey.

Uncle Jimenez nodded with a smile and said, "You must be Serenity."

Audrey was right; Serenity and Harlow were not very similar. At first glance, they may seem to be similar, but upon closer inspection, they no longer look alike.

It seemed that Serenity had inherited the genes of the Hunt family.

Serenity: "I am Serenity, and my sister Liberty went to Jensburg and will not return to Wiltspoon until the New Year."

Uncle Jimenez nodded.

After asking about Serenity's current situation, he was even more pleased to know that Serenity was living a good life and was a self-reliant person.

Even if the descendants of the family head experienced misfortunes when they were young, they will become talented when they grow up.

The old lady of the York family was very discerning and recognized Serenity's excellence, so she persuaded Zachary to marry her back home, as she would not be at a loss for Zachary.

The descendants of his family master were very outstanding.

"Uncle Jimenez, gentlemen, please move over to have breakfast." Audrey invited everyone to have dinner first.

She and Darrell went forward and personally rescued Uncle Jimenez.

The old miracle doctor and his old friends were still very strong and did not need help.

In the words of the old miracle doctor, they could kill a bull, so there was no need for help.

After everyone had breakfast at the Stone family, Audrey talked a lot with Uncle Jimenez until Uncle Jimenez could hardly hold on anymore. Audrey quickly arranged accommodations for several elderly people.

The old miracle doctor made Uncle Jimenez take two more pills. After Uncle Jimenez lay down and fell asleep, the old miracle doctor checked his pulse and then walked out of the room with confidence.

"Old sir, is my loyal uncle okay?" Audrey asked with concern.

"He's okay. His mood is much more stable now. He is no longer overjoyed or sad. He is fine. The medicine I gave him helps him sleep and makes him sleep more peacefully. He sleeps until the evening and then wakes up. His mental state can be much better.

Recently, he protested to us and insisted on coming to see you. He didn't eat or sleep well. Sometimes we had to put some sleeping pills in his food to get him to sleep."

After Titus took his winter vacation, the old miracle doctor flew back to Annenburg with his apprentice and grandson, lived in FC Manor, and helped his apprentice take care of the children.

He missed Fabian, son of Tim and Lilian.

The apprentice always disliked Fabian for crying.

He didn't want to say that his apprentice was a crybaby when he was a child, and Fabian just inherited his mother's crybaby.

Knowing that Uncle Jimenez insisted on flying to Wiltspoon, everyone was worried about his health, so they notified him to rush back and accompany Uncle Jimenez here.

“Old sir, thank you!” Audrey was grateful.

The old miracle doctor said, “We are all relatives, one family, so there is no need to be so polite. My old brother is seriously ill. He saw you today. He may feel a little better, but I’m afraid that he has been holding on for so long because he wants to avenge and find you. In this way, only then can he survive. Now that his wish has been fulfilled, I’m afraid that he will lose his temper all of a sudden and may leave us soon. In short, you should be mentally prepared.”
