

The Ex Husbands Revenge

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2936-Sure, it's a deal!" Once they reached a consensus, the Southern Boss immediately released Rodney's power and gestured for him to stay in the back.

Then, the Southern Boss and the Western Boss led the Farmers toward Angus and the Thompsons.

Angus and the others, along with the five elders who were defeated, all gathered together.

They all assumed that they could rival the Southern Boss and the Western Boss. Hence, they initially stood in favorable locations and spread out.

However, since the Southern Boss and the Western Boss were both in the Peak Almighty state, they were far stronger than the Thompsons.

Spreading out would not help them and would only make them easy targets.

Hence, they all gathered together under Arthur's command.

"Angus, the Southern Boss, and the Western Boss are too powerful and we probably can't beat them. Me and the others will do our best to stall them. The first and second elder will escort you away!" Arthur said decisively.

He was against Angus staying from the very start. Now that he learned the Southern Boss and the Western Boss were in the Peak Almighty State, there was no way that he would let Angus stay.

Hence, he decided to arrange for the first and second elders to escort Angus away while he and the others fight the Southern Boss and the Western Boss.

Though the Thompsons were at a disadvantage, they should be capable of surviving the Southern Boss and the Western Boss for some time.

They should be able to buy time for Angus to get away.

"What? No way!" Angus was taken aback as he did not expect Arthur to still want him to escape.

“Uncle, the Thompsons are in grave danger now. I can’t possibly abandon you and leave on my own. Besides, we are at a disadvantage. If the first elder and the second elder escort me away, the Thompsons would only lose even faster,” he said.

He knew that both the first and second elders were in the Intermediate Almighty State, so they were the most powerful ones among the five elders.

Even if he managed to get away, he would never be able to live with himself and he could not possibly do such a thing.

However, Angus was the head of the family and so long as he got away, it was worth sacrificing all their lives for.

With Angus alive, the Thompsons would have a chance to survive. 2

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2937-“It’s fine. Yuri and the others have evacuated. Even if something happens to me, Yuri can lead them,” Angus said calmly, his tone unquestionable.

He merely insisted on staying partly because he was the head of the family and was responsible for the entire family. Also, his son evacuated with the others and even if something was to happen to him, Yuri was fully capable of leading the Thompsons back to glory.

The outcome would be the same.

In conclusion, there was no way that he would abandon his family to save himself.

“But,” Arhtur was reluctant to give up and intended to keep persuading him.

However, Angus interrupted him before he had the chance to say much.

“That’s enough! Uncle, the Southern Boss and the Western Boss may have the upper hand, but that doesn’t mean we don’t stand a chance. So long as we work together to stall them until Mister Wolf arrives, we still stand a chance of winning,” Angus explained and lowered his voice to prevent the Southern Boss from overhearing their plan.

“But,” Arthur was taken aback and realization dawned on him.

Since the Southern Boss and the Western Boss were too powerful, he was prepared to fight and die.

However, Angus’s words made him realize that he was too pessimistic and that the Thompsons were not beyond saving.

So long as they worked together to fight until Leon got here) it was !!!

unknown as to who would win.

If he arranged for two elders to leave with Angus, the Thompsons’ defeat would have taken place sooner.

On the contrary, if Angus and the elders stayed, they would have two men in the Intermediate Almighty state, and Angus himself was in the Initial Almighty State.

They would be able to last long until Leon arrived.

So long as Leon got here, Leon’s power and his formidable Potential Energy Force should be enough to turn the tables on their opponents.

“Arthur, Angus is right. At the moment, we should combine our strength against our enemy. That way, we may have a chance to survive!” The others came to a realization as well and agreed along.

After witnessing the Southern Boss and the Western Boss’s power, they were all prepared to die as they thought defeat was inevitable.

Because of that, they were in despair and lost all urge to fight.

However, Angus pointed out that they still had a fighting chance.

Instantly, their will to survive soared and they saw hope.

“Yeah, that’s right. We can’t admit defeat until the very last moment!”

Arthur perked up.

Under Angus's encouragement, the others all came to their senses.

The fight merely just began and if they decided that they were going to lose, it would be over for the Thompsons.

On the contrary, if they gave it their all, there may be a chance for them to win.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2938-What? Do you want to help Angus get away? I won't let you!" The Southern Boss overheard part of their conversation and assumed that Angus intended to escape.

He was not about to let that happen.

"Western Boss, you'll deal with Arthur and I'll handle the rest!" the Southern Boss said coldly.

Without further delay, he launched a powerful attack on Angus and the elders.

He blamed the Thompsons for the Spears' downfall and since Arthur was as powerful as he was, he would not be able to defeat Arthur anytime soon.

Hence, he left Arthur to the Western Boss while he dealt with Angus and the elders to avenge what happened to the Spears.

"Sure!" the Western Boss said and immediately got the message.

He leaped into the air and charged at Arthur at the speed of lightning. He then proceeded to keep Arthur occupied to prevent him from helping Angus and the elders.

"Damn it!" Arthur's expression darkened.

However, he could not get away from the Western Boss and could only focus on the battle.

"Get into formation!" Facing the Southern Boss's powerful attack, the elders dared not to underestimate him and got into formation.

Two of them were in the front with three of them at the back. Though this could not compare with the Four Beasts Formation, they could work together in either a defensive or offensive position, enhancing their overall strength.

The first and second elders stood at the front and each launched a powerful attack from both sides.

“Know your place!” The Southern Boss scoffed and reached both his hands out to launch two strikes at the elders.

The first and second elders knew just how formidable the Southern Boss was and dared not to take the blow directly. They turned and dodged the attack.

“Are you trying to get away? You cant!” The Southern Boss sneered.

He already reached the Peak Almighty State and was superior in both speed and explosive power.

There was no way that he would let the first and second elders getaway.

He charged toward them, but at the same time, the third, fourth, and fifth elders approached.

“Southern Boss, take this. Thunder Blow!” The three of them roared as they launched attacks that rumbled like the sound of thunder.

The Thunder Blow was the most powerful martial technique the Thompsons possessed.

The most powerful technique was only revealed to the leader of the family under normal, circumstances.

The Thunder Blow was the simpler version of the Stormy Punch. Though it was merely in the Advanced Progressive class, it was still rather powerful.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2939-“Oh, no!” Sensing the power of their attack, the Southern Boss’s expression shifted.

Though he was formidable and did not see the elders as a threat, their formation and fighting allowed them to work well together.

This caught him by surprise.

If he continued his attack against the first and second elder, he should be able to injure them severely. However, he would only be struck by the combined attack by the third, fourth, and fifth elders.

It was not a sensible way to proceed with the fight.

Hence, he could only give up and send his energy to the third, fourth, and fifth elders.

Baam!

Following a loud sound, their attacks clashed.

The Southern Boss remained unaffected, while the third, fourth, and fifth elders were sent backing away a few steps before stopping.

Thankfully, the elders' formation caught the Southern Boss by surprise, and his attack was launched at the very last moment, so it did not even contain half his strength.

Therefore, the third, fourth, and fifth elders were only sent back away and were not injured.

“Die!” The Southern Boss revealed a malicious expression.

He advanced and launched yet another powerful strike at the third, fourth, and fifth elders.

The three of them knew just how formidable they were and backed away to dodge the attack.

However, the Southern Boss was too swift and no matter how hard they tried, they could not get away.

“Southern Boss, take this! Thunder Blow!” The first and second elders snapped out of it and launched the Thunder Blow without hesitation from the Southern Boss's left and right sides.

This was an attempt to force the Southern Boss to give up on attacking the third, fourth, and fifth elders.

Their formation was truly formidable.

If the Southern Boss was in the m If the Southern Boss was in them Advanced Almighty State; he would be caught off-guard and would likely end up injured.

Unfortunately, he was already in the Peak Almighty state, which meant that he was far superior in terms of speed and explosive power.

In the face of absolute strength, their formation did not mean a thing.

In the next moment, the southern Boss fired up his energy and o m disappeareg into thin air, effectively dodging the first and second elders' attacks.

All the while, he did not cease his advance at the third, fourth, and fifth elders as he intended to take the three of them down first. That would break the formation.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 2940-"It's over!" Seeing as the Southern Boss dodged their attacks, the first and second elders' hearts sank.

The Southern Boss was far too strong and his speed alone was enough to counter all five of them.

If the Southern Boss's attack reached its target, he would injure or even kill the third, fourth, and fifth elders and break their formation.

This seemed to be the only possible outcome.

"Elders, allow me to help!" Angus reacted swiftly.

He launched the most powerful attack, Stormy Punch, and it slammed toward the Southern Boss's chest following the rumbling sound of thunder.

John, who was next to him, launched the Thundering Fist alongside Angus.

Taking this opportunity, the first and second elders recovered and attacked from behind the Southern Boss.

This allowed the four of them to attack the Southern Boss from both the front and back.

As powerful as the Southern Boss may be, he could not possibly get away.

“Damn it! The Southern Boss was furious and his expression darkened.

He was about to take the three elders down when Angus and John joined the battle. They worked with the first and second elders to attack him from both sides.

If he continued his advance on the third, fourth, and fifth elders, he could destroy them. However, he would become an easy target.

Despite his formidable strength, he would be severely injured if he took the blow directly.

Hence, he could only give up on attacking the third, fourth, and fifth elders and leaped into the air to dodge Angus and the others’ attack.

“Let us all work together to deal with the Southern Boss and defeat him!”

Sixth-Uncle Thompson realized that this was the best chance to take the Southern Boss down and reminded the others.

They all released their true energy, which merged into a mighty powerful attack that darted toward the Southern Boss. The Sixth-Uncle Thompson and the others were all in the Initial Almighty State. There were a total of fifteen martial artists and they had the element of surprise.

With that considered, they may be able to injure the Southern Boss.

“How arrogant!” The Southern Boss was furious.

Since he was already in the Peak Almighty State, their combined attack would not pose a threat.

However, he was in mid-air and still on the momentum of his initial attack, so he had no strength left to counter.

He could only land and roll off the ground to narrowly escape their attack
