

Chapter 1093 The Match

Briggs glanced at Liam, offering a curt nod.

Laura presented only her profile to Briggs. Briggs couldn't meet her gaze, so he looked away and steeled himself. He was determined to win this first match.

The Universe Crystal Dew would be his, and with it, the power to avenge Zoya!

The competition was simple. Leaders from the teams had chosen a giant lotus leaf, big enough for over ten people, as the battleground.

The three participants from each team would stand on the leaf, and the last one remaining would win. Falling off the leaf would mean disqualification.

Briggs leaped and landed gracefully on the designated lotus leaf.

Soon, Garrett's and Darren's teams each sent two representatives.

The battle commenced, and all three fighters assumed combat stances.

As the strongest of the three, Briggs decided to strike first.

The Universe Crystal Dew would be his, and with it, the power to avenge Zoya!

The competition was simple. Leaders from the teams had chosen a giant lotus leaf, big enough for over ten people, as the battleground.

The three participants from each team would stand on the leaf, and the last one remaining would win. Falling off the leaf would mean disqualification.

Briggs leaped and landed gracefully on the designated lotus leaf.

Soon, Garrett's and Darren's teams each sent two representatives.

The battle commenced, and all three fighters assumed combat stances.

As the strongest of the three, Briggs decided to strike first.

His speed and power were overwhelming. He effortlessly knocked the member of Doug's team off the leaf.

The remaining opponent from Garrett's team fared no better, defeated by Briggs within two moves.

The first round victory went to Rodney's team.

Beaming with triumph, Briggs rejoined his team. The Universe Crystal Dew was already within his reach. "Just wait, Townsend," he muttered under his breath.

The second match preparations began swiftly.

Rodney turned to Laura. "Zoya, you'll take part in the second round," he said.

Rodney knew his team wouldn't win the second match.

A level-five Primogem Warrior simply couldn't hope to defeat two level-six opponents.

Zoya and Kolton, having just returned to the team, seemed like the obvious choice for Rodney.

Briggs realized Rodney's plan to make his woman a tool. Fury contorted his face. He stormed forward, ready to argue, but Rodney cut him off with a dismissive tone.

"I'm the leader. It's my call. Zoya, simply admit defeat when you reach the leaf. I'll bring us victory in the final round!"

Despite his words, Rodney knew a level-six opponent could easily kill a level-five Primogem Warrior.

Laura would be in grave danger to join the fight, especially since she hadn't fully recovered from the beast crystal's energy.

The task was risky. That was precisely why Rodney had offered it to the former member of Leif's team. Asking a member of his team to risk dying would undoubtedly spark dissent inside the team.

Only risking the life of a member of Leif's team would maintain order.

Laura looked pale, but her gaze was resolute; she understood Rodney's plan. As she prepared to comply, Liam interjected, "Wait! I'll fight for my sister!"

Rodney remained unfazed. "Kolton, you're better off

Chapter 1093 The Match

 +120 Points at most letting your sister handle this. As a level-four warrior, you wouldn't last a hit on that platform. It's suicide. Your sister has a better fighting chance."

Liam simply nodded, but he did not back off. Besides protecting Laura, he had another reason to join the fight: Garrett himself would be participating in the second match!