

Chapter 0579

I'm lucky I'm small and don't disturb Cam driving at a ridiculous speed. I run my fingers through the nape of his neck and then squeeze his shoulder as I move towards Dakota. "If you keep doing that Tiny, we will crash before we get home. Now let Dakota have his turn."

He doesn't have me face him though. He sits me on his lap facing out, watching the forest fly by in a dark blur.

"Spread those legs for me sweetness." He moans in my ear, draping my legs on the outside of his and opening them as far as the space will allow. My legs are trapped to the door and center console now.

I can still feel their tension floating in the cab of the truck, it's heavy and suffocating, but it's not all bad. They are all thinking of the things that Mike or Adrielle, or whoever was controlling him said, which in my opinion wasn't much. He insulted all of us, which is nothing new. But they took the thought of me not mating with them right away because I don't find them worthy to heart. And now I have to show them they are all that I want. I try to aim my thoughts on calming them while Dakota is running his hands all over me. It's very distracting, all my nerves firing little shocks with every caress. I reach back with my right hand, running my fingers in Dakota's hair, pulling his face closer to my neck. I try to find Cam with my left, but he's just out of my reach. I can brush his elbow on the armrest and another wave of desire ripples through me.

"Hands to yourself, Love. I told you we'll for sure crash if you distract me. Let Dakota love you right now. I'll get my turn soon enough."

Just as he says that, Dakota's hand reaches my center and I make a sound that is something like a purr.

"Do you like that Sweetness?" I drop my head back to his shoulder and nod. "I'm going to need words. You're going to have to tell us what you do and do like, very specifically." He rubs me again through my leggings. 1

I am hot and wearing entirely too many clothes. I just want his skin to touch mine. I start to squirm, rocking my butt back into his length. He is just as impressive as Oliver and my mouth starts to water as he groans.

He pulls his hand away and I whine. Why did he stop?

"Words, Sweetness."

"Hmm?" What words does he want? I will say anything to get him to touch me like that again.

He huffed a laugh into my ear. "Our girl is rendered a little unintelligent when she's horny. We'll have to remember that." The other two laugh, but I have no idea what they are talking about. My brain is scrambled and I'm having trouble making complete thoughts.

Dakota grabs my inner thigh and then rubs his thumb down my center and I let out another moan. "I asked if you like this, Sweetness. I am going to need an answer, or I might have to stop."

"NO! I mean yes, I like it. Don't stop, please." My last words are drawn out as he uses the pads of his fingers to rub circles around my clit making me arch back into him. His other hand is massaging one of my nipples over my shirt and the dual sensation is making me crazy.

"She's soaked, I can feel it through her pants." He groans, pressing me back into him.

"I need more; please." I don't even know what I need more of, but my core is throbbing and I can feel my release building again. I can't believe I am this close again so quickly.

Dakota licks up the side of my neck as he pinches my nipple hard and rubs large, slow circles on my swollen nub. "Come for us. We're almost home and I don't want anyone else to hear you scream."

"I'm...I...uh, oh f*ck! I'm coming...Oh, yes, yes, ye...." I don't even know what I'm saying at this point and I don't have lips to muffle my sounds on. My vision blurs again with white spots this time. I have no control over my body as I go rigid and then become a trembling mess as he lets me ride out my second orgasm in the truck tonight.

Chapter 0580

He wraps one arm around my shoulders and the other across my waist and he just holds me tight to his chest. We are both breathing heavily, but I can hear Cam and Oliver too.

"I never really thought about how good it would feel to share her. I am going to lose my mind, but beg for this kind of torture all of the time." Oliver grumbles from behind me. He must have slid over when I wasn't paying attention. He's playing with my ponytail. I'm not sure how I know it's him, but I do.

Just a few moments later we are blazing into the driveway and I am out of the truck and Dakota's lap in seconds. Cam is carrying me bridal style, close to his chest. I bury my face and wrap my arms around his neck, inhaling his scent. I can't help myself and now that I have come down, barely, from my high in the truck, I decide to tease him a little. I start to place little feather light kisses all over his neck. I'm not on the side that has his mark, or I would really mess with him, but this is enough because his fingers are going to leave marks in my thigh and my sides. But he isn't making any noise. I'm not the only one who will be fun to mess with.

I know he's walking quickly through the house and no one says anything or no one is around. I don't lift my head to find out. The thought of everyone knowing what we are doing is embarrassing enough. Having to look at their faces while we walk by to go do what we are about to be doing will shut my whole vibe down.

I hear the elevator doors open and we walk in. I can feel and smell the other two close by us. Their body heat is warming my back and my legs.

"You will pay for your teasing little mate." Cam growls but kisses the side of my head gently. "But not tonight. Tonight you become our mate completely.

The elevator doors open and he walks me in, placing my feet on the bed and wraps his arms around my waist. Like this I am just taller than him so I have to look down into his eyes.

"It's time to get to know your body inside and out. We will take our time so we can learn what you do and don't like and we will show you the same. It's only us here and we are all yours. Feel free to try anything you're curious about."

I nod my head.

"Words, Love. Dakota already told you and we will not tell you again. You will just be punished." He kisses me hard, grabbing both sides of my head with his massive hands. Then I feel cool air rush all over my body. "It's about time we got rid of those. You have been way too overdressed for way too long." I look down and I am naked and my clothes are shredded on the floor on either side of Cam.

"Cameron! What happened to my clothes?"

"Dakota said you were less than intelligent when you were horny. We need to add unobservant to the list too." Then he leans down and begins kissing across the skin of my chest, hands gliding up my sides, thumbs grazing my nipples. I really like when they do that. And I tell them. I don't know if it's sexy or whatever, but they told me to say when I liked something. Then I can't think about anything else as a hand glides up the inside of one of my legs while lips trail the outside.
