

Chapter 350: THEIR SOLACE

THEIR SOLACE

Iris was shocked and couldn't believe it when Cane told her to ride on the back of his beast. She thought he was joking and playing with her, but then she realized it was out of character for him to do so.

"We will take forever to reach Riverside pack by foot."

Cane simply said that when Iris looked mortified after what he told her what to do. In a way, he was right because in normal pace by carriage and horse, it would take them more or less two whole weeks, let alone by foot.

And it was out of question if Iris was left behind.

At first, it felt so awkward to clamber on top of the black beast, as Iris felt it was so intimate to straddle him, but after the second day, she finally got a hang of it and felt less clumsy. Actually, she enjoyed it.
