

Chapter 370: SHE IS INNOCENT

SHE IS INNOCENT

Cane entered the room, where they held alpha Gill and it was Redmond, who immediately approached him, while the other warriors from the Howling Wolf pack bowed their bodies slightly upon seeing their alpha. This was the first time for them to see him after months.

Cane had mobilized around a thousand of warrior from the Howling Wolf pack to march toward the Riverside pack and they had arrived a few hours ago, but at that time, Cane was taking care of Iris and wouldn't want to be disturbed by any reason.

"What about her? How is she?" Redmond asked, he approached Cane with worried in his expression, but he immediately lowered his voice when he felt the murderous intention radiated from the alpha, as he didn't answer his question.
