

Chapter 873

873 YOU ARE GOING TO LOSE THEM

"It's the alpha, who sent us here, miss..."Hanna said, as she helped Iris to sit down, she looked pale and in one glance you could tell life had not been so kind to her currently."He didn't say anything, only told us to look after you."

Obviously, Cane didn't tell them about Iris's pregnancy, which left her with the option.

"Luna, what happened? Are you sick?" Ameerasked. She knew Cane well enough to tell something was wrong between them two, but unless one of them said something, she didn't want to poke her nose into their problem too deep.

But, instead of saying something, Iris burst into tears. She hugged Hanna tightly. She looked for comfort that she couldn't get from Cane, but still, he was the only one she wanted. The only one her heart needed.

Outside of the carriage, the five warriors couldn't tell what was going on inside, they also didn't have any idea what went wrong when the alpha was finally here instead of the lycan.

But the five of them could tell their alpha and their luna was currently having a fight. Therefore, it was very frustrating when they caught their alpha stayed in the distance, sometime he would stare at the carriage for hours, but didn't approach the luna, because in the end, he would always leave.

Just like what the alpha was doing right now.

"Should you go and tell the alpha to solve whatever problem he has with the luna? She has not been out for days now," Otis said to Zephyr.

"Why don't you the one, who go there andtell him that?" Zephyr replied.

"He is going to kill me, can't you feel his darkaura?" Otis shuddered."I feel chill is running down my spine every time the alpha is like this." He nudged Eron."Why don't you go there and say something to the alpha?"

"It's generous of you to think that the alphawill not kill me," Eron grunted. Their alpha was the best, but they missed their warm-hearted luna too.

In the end, no one of them were dare enough to say anything, while Ameer and Hanna stayed inside the carriage for hours. It was only night came when Ameer finally got out of the carriage and asked for the alpha.

"I am not sure, where he is," Zephyr repliedtruthfully.

"We are not allowed to leave this spot. Wehave been camped here for days." Otis stretched out his body. They had prepared a tent for the luna and the alpha and they had not yet used it.

"Maybe you can ask Ethan, the gamma hasbeen following the alpha," Dyne suggested. "Or look for Aliana if you couldn't findgamma Ethan."

Ameer nodded and thanked them, but before she left, Eron approached her to talk.

"Can you talk to the alpha? He has not seen the luna for days and only stared at the carriage all this time. I don't know what the problem between them, but it worried us to see them fighting like this." Eron had not yet seen the luna, but he knew her situation wouldn't be so great."I can see the alpha cares for the luna, or else, he wouldn't station us here and call you and Hanna to come to comfort the luna, but I think the only person the luna needed the most is him."

Ameer patted Eron's shoulder."Let's see what I can do."

After that, she went to find Ethan, but she couldn't, thus she looked for Aliana. She was talking to Jace about something, but when she saw Ameer, she immediately approached her.

She was old already and standing up for long hurt her back, thus Aliana took her inside her tent and served her with warm tea.

"Can you tell me what happened withCane?" Ameer asked.

"Did... the luna said something to you?"Aliana wanted to know how much she knew. She didn't want to be the one, who told the news because it was not her place.

"Yes, she is pregnant," Ameer replied. She wasvery excited with this pregnancy, but she didn't think Cane's reaction would be like this, even for her, it came as a shock about how strong Cane's rejection was.

Wasn't this what he always wanted?

Aliana sighed deeply and then told her everything that happened. It made things easier because the luna actually had told her about the big news.

"Alpha shouldn't have treated the luna likethis. This is very hard on her, it took toll on her and I am worried about her babies."Aliana frowned.

Grace would come often to check on Iris's condition, but there was not much she could do because the illness didn't lay in her body, but in her mind and heart.

"Don't you think it's cruel for him to not talkabout this with the luna? Instead, he has been running away from the problem."Aliana wouldn't have said this in front of Ethan, but Ameer was different, she was like the mother of the pack. She cared for all the member and especially the alpha.

"Just because he didn't show it, it doesn'tmean he is fine. He is torturing himself too right now." Ameer sipped her tea."I don't think he is running away. He didn't even know where to run..."

Aliana was silent for a moment."I still don't think it's right for the alpha to ignore the luna."www.novelworld.com

"If you thought about it again, Hanna and Iwouldn't be here if he ignored the luna, neither the five warriors wouldn't have been stationed outside of the carriage for day and night." Ameer stood up. She needed to look for Cane."As much as the luna needed him, the alpha also needed time to process his grief."

"The luna is grieving too."

"Don't judge other people's grief. Everyone grieves differently." Just because Cane didn't show it, it didn't mean his grief was not as deep as Iris."I can understand with the alpha's reaction and his poor choice to keep his distance from the luna, but he deserved some time to think everything thoroughly and sort out his emotions, least he hurt her with what he said in a fit of his desperation. Not being there with her doesn't mean he cares about her any less."

Ameer tightened the cloak around her body and Aliana also stood up. She would accompany her to find the alpha.

"I can understand why the luna is scaredtoo, she has been rejected by so many people in her entire life, thus being rejected by the alpha must be the hardest for her."

Aliana sighed deeply."There is no win win solution for this..."

Both of them couldn't find Cane after asking around. They said the alpha shifted into his beast and went away without telling them where he had gone.

However, they found Ethan.www.novelworld.com

"The alpha must be with Lou, the two ofthem went to Chrystal Moon pack to investigate something." Ethan couldn't disclose what they were investigating, but they didn't need to know about this. "If you want to meet with him, I think it will be alright for you to wait for him inside his tent. Usually, Cane will return to his tent to change his clothes after his journey with Lou."

With that, Ameer went to Cane's tent and wait for him. It took her hours for Cane to finally return and the alpha didn't look surprise to see her there. He had sensed her scent once he was close enough to the tent.

It was already past midnight, almost morning when Cane comeback.

"Alpha"Ameer stood up to greet him.

"Not now, Ameer." Cane went to change hisclothes. It was not sure what kind of place he and Lou visited, but he always had dirt on him when he returned.

"Alpha, I have heard what happened." Ameerdidn't back down, at the very least, he had to listen to what she was going to say, or the very least, he needed to let out whatever thing he was trying to hold back."I know you are hurt, but you are hurting her too."

"I said not now, Ameer." Cane took off hisclothes and changed it with new one.

With this attitude, Ameer didn't have another option, she toughened up and talked sternly to him."Cane, you are afraid of losing yet another baby again, that's why you didn't even want to think that you have a chance to have them, but you can't act like this forever."

Cane turned around and growled dangerously at Ameer."I don't want a child! You have seen it yourself how she went into a pitfire when we lost our babies! am not going to go through that again!"

"Are you going to force her to get rid of thebabies?" Ameer stood her ground. She knew Cane well and she needed him to get it out of his system, since he had been holding back so much. Let him scream and be angry if it could help him to clear his mind."Didn't it make you the one, who pushed her into pitfire then?"

"If it's not now, the baby will be killed then."His voice was filled with resentment.

"You don't know the future, Cane. How canyou assume you are going to lose them? It is your fear speaking. You may not lose them again, no one knew the future, but I am sure, you are going to lose v our mate and your babies if you kept doing this to her."
