

Chapter 928

928 MANIPULATION AND THE TRUTH

"You are not Luna's only protector." Zalereminded him of his status too. In this case, Zale and Lou were on the same level, which the merchant hated the most.

However, they failed to notice the strangeness of the situation.

Even when Iris went out of the carriage, Hanna and Ameer, who stayed with her inside the carriage didn't stop her from getting out, knowing how the situation could be dangerous for their pregnant Luna and most importantly, they looked like they didn't care at all.

Meanwhile, Iris's five warriors didn't stop her too, or at least came with her. They looked normal, like nothing was happening. As if, they didn't see Iris.

No one sensed this oddity aside from Cedric. He was inside the carriage with Abby, talking to her, but she didn't respond. At first, Cedric didn't think too much about it. He thought Abby was contemplating something, until he realized everyone outside of the carriage had this same monotonous expression, just like what Abby had right now.

"What happened here?" Cedric asked to no one in particular and tried to get Abby back to her senses but it didn't work. From the window of his carriage, he watched Luna Iris went into an abandoned house, followed by Lou and Zale.

From the look of it, they were the only people who were normal and had not yet realized what actually happened.

However, when Cedric was about to go out, he watched Rei entered the same house like Iris had stepped in with Lou and Zale.

Cedric halted for a while because he could sense Rei was up to no good.

Only when Rei had disappeared into the house. Cedric came out and followed them into the same house. By doing this, he risked himself to get exposed. His life could be in danger because of it.

Cedric decided to follow them into the house. But someone startled him when they called his name. No one supposed to know that it was him, because he was wearing his hoodie and given to the circumstances, the person who called him could be a potential danger for the knight. www.novelworm.com

But thankfully it was actually alpha Cezi, he approached him with a deep frown on his face.

"Do you notice this?" Cezi asked. He didn't need to elaborate because Cedric knew what he meant.

"Yes, this is weird." Cedric pointed his finger at the house and asked if he was going there too. www.novelworm.com

"Yes, I saw the Luna and the other two people entered." He then added. "Also Rei."

"Yes, I saw that too."

"It's Okay for you to be seen by him?" Cezi was well aware of Cedric's situation.

The knight thought about it for a while. "If there is something wrong, I guess this has something to do with Rei. More so, there is no point for me to stay hidden when the situation is like this, I am going to die anyway if Rei was behind this."

In the end, Cedric and Cezi went into the house together, but before that, the knight looked over his shoulder at thousand of warriors, knights, magic users and all the people, who had participated in this Journey and all of them looked like usual, normal even, aside from the fact they were very ignorant and unresponsive to their surroundings.

It didn't sit well with Cedric. Any kind of abnormality in this situation could be taken as a bad sign. More so, this house didn't give any good feeling at all.

Almost like there was something really bad that would wait for them inside. This house was not big, but surely this was not a poor house either and when they went inside, they knew that this was a jewelry shop with a lot of precious gems were still on display.

"Where are they?" Cezi tried to find any of them, but he couldn't smell their scent in the air, as if they had vanished.

Iris was sure that she came not long after Cane, thus basically she wouldn't miss him, but when she was inside and searched for him for a while, she couldn't find Cane, instead it was Rei, who was waiting for her. He was standing in the front table and stared at Iris.

Seeing this, Iris immediately turned around to walk away from here, but when she was sure that Lou and Zale were right behind her, she couldn't find any of them.

"I only want to make sure of something. You don't need to be afraid and try to run away from me. I promise this will not belong." Rei walked toward Iris, but his eyes filled with fear and he kept clenched and unclenched his fists.

You could tell that something upset him.

"Where is Cane?" Iris asked with stern voice. She was not going to listen to what he wanted her to do, thus she went to the door, but it was locked. www.novelworm.com

This room smell like Citrus and she didn't like the fact she was here alone with him. How he could be here? He was talking with Koda earlier and didn't even followed Cane into this house.

"You don't need to worry, he is fine for now." Rei's expression was devoid from any emotions, as if he was not really here. His mind was miles away from here.

"I don't believe you."

"This is not the first time you said that you don't believe me." Rei narrowed his eyes. He looked sad and tired. "Ever since you met with the lycan, you became less trusting toward me."

Iris immediately notice that Rei was not talking to her, he was talking to Na. He still refused to believe that Na has gone. Completely gone and he didn't have a chance to see her. to meet her, despite how long he had been waiting for her.

In the end, he lost to the lycan again and Na chose him over and over again.

"Na has gone. She is no longer here anymore," Iris said, but Rei shook his head.
