

Chapter 934

934 ITS COMING...

There was this tacit understanding between them when they were thinking as one and moved accordingly.

On the beast's back, Iris created protection around her and Cane. So, he wouldn't be affected by the poisonous miasma, while Lou and Abby created their own shield to protect Cezi, Cedric and Zale, as they worked on their newly found ability.

It felt so strange for them, but at the same time, it almost felt like they had done this before and only needed a little bit guidance to get it done, especially when Iris had summoned the Sylph, which made it easier for them to tune to their ability, since they had the same divine power from Iris.

Meanwhile, on the beast's back, Iris felt comfortable hugging the beast's neck, its black fur was so soft, it tickled her cheeks.

As she buried her face against it. From the corner of her eyes, she saw her little lights rested on the beast's ears.

They looked so cute. From here, they looked like they were nipping on the beast's ears. Iris felt at ease, despite the fact that they were going to have a confrontation against Rei, while Decratic's exact whereabouts were still unknown.

However, when they reached the people from the Holy Kingdom, it was Elder Dandolf, Elder Xarex and Elder Rose, who stopped them. They didn't look like they were under the influence, but the troubled look on their faces alerted them.

It was Elder Dandolf, who stepped forward and talked with Iris.

"Luna Iris, Rei is injured badly. Please, have mercy on him. After all, he is one of your protectors," Elder Dandolf said. He bowed his head politely. "There is an explanation for his action. We did this for your own good, Luna."

"By manipulating me and putting my people in danger?" Iris talked about the warriors. They talked about the explanation when they let the spider devils devour the shifters and the people on their side, leaving only the people from the Holy Kingdom that was left untouched.

What a hypocrite bastard he was to say they did this for her own good.

"There is an explanation for it," Elder Dandolf said. From behind him, a few people, around twenty of them, moved closer and Iris recognized them as part of the pure faction.

Meanwhile, Elder Xarex and Elder Rose didn't do anything. They didn't say a word and what made Iris narrow her eyes was the fact Elder Rose avoided her eyes.

This showed that the two elders didn't seem to agree with whatever the pure faction had decided, but then from the look of it and from what they learned from Abby, the pure faction had so much control over the Holy Kingdom's people.

They were the real power and Rei was the person, who moved the Holy Kingdom from behind the scene.

"Rei didn't mean to hurt you. You need to understand that he had gone through so much, he had gone through so many things that you might never imagine even in your nightmare. He had been waiting for you for over five centuries and..."

Elder Dandolf had not yet finished with his speech when the black beast charged forward, using his black wisp to clear the way for him and his mate, sending those people from the Holy Kingdom away from his path.

Neither Cane nor Iris had time to listen to Elder Dandolf's speech. They had heard the same thing over and over again in the past and now, even though they didn't want it, they had remembered the word by heart.

They only repeated the same thing over and over again, which was very annoying. Instead, they rushed over and knocked them down. Thankfully, it was Cane that they were facing, if it was Lu, they would have been cut into half just like the spider devils.

However, what they saw next made the beast halted and Iris gasped in shock to watch Rei's current condition.

"Wh-what is that?" Iris stuttered. She got off the beast's back and Cane shifted back into his human form.

Right before them, they could see how Rei was sitting against a tree and spider devils surrounded them. At least, there were eight spiders around him, while Rei looked very lethargic. The wound that he got from Iris was still there.

He looked gaunt and his skin looked paler than anything that Iris had ever seen. If it was not for the conflict between them, she would feel very sorry for him.

Based on her nature, Iris would have rushed toward him and cured him. However, at this point, no matter how he looked like, she didn't feel an ounce of pity. She wanted him to die. If it was possible, she wanted him to die in the most horrendous way. Would this make her heart turned black? Because she felt so much hatred for this man, since he was dare enough to threaten her and her babies.

Rei lifted his head, he was breathing heavily, his green eyes looked very hollow. He was so weak and Iris could feel that.

"Na..." Rei breathed the name and his voice filled with longing, which made Cane lashed out a black wisp toward him in attempt to kill him.

However, before the black wisp could reach and harm Rei, a spider devil had jumped in front of the attack and sacrificed themselves. Its body was cut into two and blue blood pooled on the ground.

The other seven spider devils looked restless, they were going to attack Cane, but it seemed there was something that held them back, or maybe it was safe to say that there was someone, who tried to hold them back.

"I mean no harm to you, Na... I have never meant to hurt you at all..." Rei said. It was safe to say that he was delirious right now, because he was still in denial that Na was no more. Her existence in this realm had vanished, not even her soul was left for Rei to manipulate. "I only missed you so bad... I want to see you again, Na..."

Rei kept repeating the same thing, but Cane and Iris were thinking about different things. From behind them, the elders and the pure faction people gathered together, they were alerted after witnessing what Cane had intended to do. The alpha was not playing.

"You lied," Iris said, she turned around and faced Elder Rose. "You lied when you told us about the spider devils and a way to get rid of it."

Cane had realized it too when he saw the guilt in Elder Rose's eyes, but Iris voiced out her frustration because they were being fooled by her, thinking she finally came to her senses and chose Abby, her daughter, instead of her blind loyalty toward the Holy Kingdom, which in extent, Rei.

The relationship between Elder Rose and Rei was quite complicated because it was clear to see how much hatred she had for him for what he had done to her second daughter, but at the same time, she was unable to do any real harm to him.

Therefore, the information about the spider devils that Elder Rose told them must be something that they had planned and unfortunately, they fell into their trick.

If the creature was willing to sacrifice itself to be killed in order to protect Rei, it meant somehow, he was connected with the spider devil. The proof was before their eyes, plain and simple.

"You lied to us," Iris narrowed her eyes, it was not an accusation, but a statement. However, Elder Rose didn't say anything, she kept avoiding Iris's eyes, therefore, this time too, it was Elder Dandolf, who stepped in.

It seemed, the role between him and elder Xarex had reversed, because right now the latter was not being responsive at all. He kept quiet the entire time and let Elder Dandolf do the talking.

"Your friend will be fine," Elder Dandolf said.

"There were dozens of spiderlings inside their body and you said they will be fine?" Iris roared. They still had not yet found Elhan, Aliana, Redmond and the rest, even though the other people were working on it, but they didn't know whether the time would be enough to rescue all of them or not. "Don't fool me with that stupid and reckless statement."

"The coco will prevent them from being harmed from the poisonous miasma and the spiderlings will keep them alive while inside." Elder Dandolf was being more talkative than usual. "Decratic is here. I am sure you can feel it too, Serafim. We are on your side."

"But, you harmed my people!"

"They will not help during the battle. We don't need a lot of impractical forces. The shifters will not be able to do anything against magic." Elder Dandolf waved his hand behind him, showing the people from the pure faction. "We are more than enough, Serafim. We are the people that you need in order to fight Decratic."

Probably, it was in his nature, but elder Xarex seemingly couldn't help himself not to talk a word or two in order to persuade Iris. "You have been having negative thoughts lately and you don't keep your heart pure, thus it gave Decratic power to rise again. It gave Decratic enough strength to have a battle with us ahead of time."

Iris gritted her teeth. How shameless he was to say something like that?! If anything, it was them, who had been filling her heart with so much hatred that fueled to Decratic's strength!

Iris wanted to lash out at them, but Cane stopped her. His mate was consumed by anger, where she didn't notice the appearance of the poisonous miasma. The ground cracked and faint red clouds could be seen appearing from the fissure. There were two around them currently.

"What the truth about the spider devil?" Cane asked.

"We don't answer to you." Elder Xarex still looked down on Cane. He lived up the description about how people from the Holy Kingdom looked at the shifter.

"Answer him," Iris said coldly. "I don't accept any disrespectful act against my mate."

Cane smiled at Elder Xarex. He really needed to observe more of how to face his opponent. Finally, it was Elder Dandolf again that spoke up.

Apparently, they shouldn't have burned the spider devil because once their blood was boiled, it would create an antidote for the people, who were killed in it and needless to say, all of them were breathing the smell of it.

The reason why Iris and her other protectors were not affected was because of her divine power, since the spider devil was reeked of black magic, thus the illusion contained within it too, where Rei controlled it because he was the one, who had infused the spider devil with black magic.

Just like Decratic, who could revive the dragon from the extinction, as it turned out Rei had the same ability as well.

Meanwhile, the illusion that Iris saw when she faced Rei was purely Rei's manipulation. It affected Iris, but it didn't last for long.

"Serafim, do you really think that the black rain and the dark sky were simply a phenomenon?" Elder Dandolf shook his head. "Only if you are willing to let Rei taught you, you will know by now what dangerous meaning behind it."

"If that's really important. You will let her know whether or not she is willing to be taught." Cane looked at Elder Dandolf, while Elder Xarex held back his tongue. "The fact you still hold back the information meant, that's not important enough or you are being very vain to not know what is important and only wanted things to go according to what you wanted, despite the predicament of the situation."

Elder Dandolf looked trying so hard to choose his words carefully, because he didn't want to get to Iris's bad side.

"The black rain contained with the most dangerous black magic... it's very strong, until you can't feel it." It was Rei, who spoke, his voice was very faint, but Iris could read his lips, but he was talking in Andel language, which was the language that Cane didn't fully understand.

Even at a moment like this, they were still being very petty and put their sentiment on the shifters above anything else.

"The black rain will taint the ground and open the gates of hell, the dark sky is part of a series of events, where the extinct creature from the past will be revived again."

At first, it was black rain and the dark sky and then the resuscitation of the ancient creature, the poisonous miasma and then the last was the receding divine power from the Serafim.

Only people from the pure faction, who knew about this information and Rei knew all the vital information, including the Serafim's power more than anyone else.

"Even after you knew about that, you still wasted your time to harm my people." Iris refused to speak in their language, but Rei kept talking in Andel.

Rei looked at Iris deeply, almost apologetic. "I need their lives' essence."

"Which meant, you will kill them eventually." What a liar. He told her that her people wouldn't be harmed and they actually saved them from the poisonous miasma.

"I will not kill the people that dear to you, Serafim." Rei stared at Iris with longing, but it didn't go unnoticed by Cane when he glanced at her stomach in a brief second and it filled with so much hatred. "The gates of hell will be opened and the only thing that Decratic needed right now is for you to fill your heart with hatred, which will make him stronger and you lost your divine power."

This was ridiculous! How could you not allow to be angry when these people kept saying this stupid thing!?

It was unsure, whether they had to be grateful or not with the fact that Rei was not their opponent and was actually on their side.

Beneath them, they could hear a deep growl, where it shook the ground, they felt like they just woken up another dangerous ancient creature from hell and that could be right...

"It's coming..." Rei said. His complexion was getting better and Iris hated the thought of how many lives' essence he took from the shifters.
