

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2324 - 2325

Chapter 2324

“Pick her up!” Zizi shouted.

Kassidy did not dare to hesitate and quickly helped the unconscious Noemi sit up, then turned her back to Zizi.

“See clearly my acupuncture technique, Huqu!”

Zizi shouted, waved his sleeve again, and then five silver needles fell between his fingers, followed by a sharp swing.

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

Five silver needles shot out instantly, piercing Noemi’s neck, back, and waist, respectively.

“Come again!”

As Zizi spoke, five more silver needles were thrown at Noemi.

Every silver needle was used just right, hitting the acupuncture points accurately.

Judging from the acupuncture technique, decades of practice would never be able to reach this level.

“Break it for me!”

After pricking the silver needle, Zizi stretched out his two index fingers and suddenly touched the middle point on Noemi’s back.

Noemi trembled all over, and the next second, she spurted out a mouthful of black blood, spreading all over the wall.

Blood spurted out of her mouth, her convulsed body finally returned to normal, and even her blue lips gradually regained their color.

She looked much calmer.

“Most of the toxins in the patient’s body have been eliminated. As long as she drinks a little more, I believe she will be fine soon.”

Zizi wiped the sweat from his forehead, looking a little tired.

The acupuncture technique just now seemed very impressive, but in fact it consumed a huge amount of energy in his body, and there was not much energy left in his body.

It won't be possible to recover in less than three to five days.

Unless absolutely necessary, he would not easily use the Huqu Crossing Acupuncture Technique.

But so far, the effect has been quite good.

"As expected of Dr. Wang, he is indeed amazing!"

Conor gave a thumbs up and began to praise, "I have heard for a long time that the Huqu Crossing Acupuncture method has the magical effect of turning decay into something miraculous. Once it is used, even a person who has died will be healed. It can also bring the dead back to life. When I saw it today, it really lived up to its reputation!"

"Resurrection from the dead is hard to say, but as long as the patient is still breathing, I can keep him safe and sound," Zizi said with a smile on his face.

"Doctor Wang is too humble. If you hadn't taken action personally, Noemi might not have been able to escape this disaster today."

Conor clasped his fists with both hands, admiring them.

"Doctor Wang, is my sister really okay?"

Looking at the unconscious Noemi, Cassidy frowned slightly, her expression not relaxing at all.

Noemi's face looked better, and she had regained her composure, but her breath and pulse were still weak, and there was no sign of improvement at all.

"What? You can't trust me with my medical skills."

Zizi put his hands behind his back and said rather unhappily, "I have been walking around the world for so many years, and I have never found a disease that cannot be cured. I can conclude that as long as the patient takes another sip of the fairy water, she can wake up immediately. If you don't believe it, try it yourself!"

Chapter 2325

Conor said with a sorry smile, "I believe it. I naturally believe what the miracle doctor Wang said. If the miracle doctor Wang hadn't come to the rescue today and turned the rot into a miracle, Noemi would have died."

"Forget it; it doesn't matter." Zizi stroked his beard and said proudly, "San'er, give the patient two more sips of the fairy water to show Miss Marshall her true ability as a teacher."

"Yes!"

The apprentice responded, then walked to the hospital bed with a small bowl of fairy water, carefully fed Noemi, and took two sips.

After drinking two mouthfuls of the fairy water, Noemi kicked her legs, and there was no movement.

The apprentice who was feeding the medicine was stunned for a moment, then tentatively stretched out his hand to feel Noemi's breath.

With a look of horror on his face, he quickly withdrew his hand as if electrocuted. "Master! The patient...the patient is out of breath!"

"What?!" As soon as these words came out, everyone's expressions turned pale.

Even Zizi, who was full of confidence just now, is a little confused now.

"Out of breath?" How is that possible?"

Zizi couldn't believe it. He pushed his apprentice away and reached out to check Noemi's pulse. Sure enough, he found that Noemi's pulse had stopped beating. Not even breathing.

"How could this happen? It shouldn't be." At this moment, Zizi finally panicked.

First, used the Huqu Ferry to draw out the speed in Noemi's body, and then used the fairy water to nourish it. There was no problem with the steps.

Normally, Noemi would not be able to wake up immediately after drinking the fairy water, but at least she could make up for the loss of energy and blood, thus allowing her body to recover greatly.

But what is the situation now?

Not only did Noemi not wake up, but she died immediately. What went wrong?

"Doctor Wang! Didn't you say there was no problem? Why is my sister out of breath?!"

Kassidy grabbed Zizi's clothes, looking particularly excited.

Before the treatment, he made lofty claims and made all kinds of promises, but as soon as she was treated, she was haunted.

First she twitched, then she spurted blood, and now she didn't even have breath.

What kind of miracle doctor was this? This was clearly quackery!

"Doctor Wang! What...what's going on?" Conor frowned and looked suspicious.

"Don't worry, don't worry!" It's just a suspended animation phenomenon. There is still hope for our salvation."

Zizi wiped his sweat and forced himself to calm down.

He had been traveling around the world for so many years and had treated countless diseases. It was not like he had ever experienced scenes like this.

The only difference was that this time the patient's background was too powerful. If the patient is unable to recover and receive the reward, it will become a matter of whether he can maintain his reputation.
