

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2371

Chapter 2371

“Brother Fenley, have you seen Dr. Rhys?”

Noemi and Cassidy looked at Fenley, then fixed their gazes on Dustin at the same time, with a bit of curiosity and confusion on their faces.

Could it be that the two sides were acquaintances?

Dustin said, “Mr. Hudson is famous all over the world, and how can an unknown junior like me have the opportunity to meet him? Mr. Hudson looks familiar; maybe I have a common face.”

Dustin’s expression was still calm, but his heart was a little more turbulent.

His current face was the result of a disguise that was very different from his previous appearance.

Moreover, after seeing Fenley, Dustin deliberately restrained his breath and did not reveal any flaws.

Unexpectedly, Fenley’s perception was so sharp that he only glanced at him and noticed something was wrong.

“It seems that I recognized the wrong person.”

Fenley stared at Dustin carefully for two seconds before finally smiling slightly.

“But Dr. Rhys is not an unknown junior.”

“There were not many people in the Celestial Alliance who could bear such high praise from Noemi and Cassidy. I believe that with Dr. Rhys’s talent, he will be famous all over the world sooner or later.”

Although Dustin looked ordinary, he gave Fenley a mysterious feeling.

Fenley had a hunch that Dr. Dustin Rhys was not simple.

“Thank you, Mr. Hudson, for your kindness. I hope that day will come.” Dustin responded politely.

As the two were talking, Conor suddenly walked out of the villa.

When Conor first saw the scene opposite, he was stunned and then frowned slightly, particularly after seeing Fenley.

A hint of hatred flashed in his eyes.

However, when Fenley's eyes swept over, Conor immediately smiled and greeted him warmly.

"Fenley, when did you arrive? Why didn't you notify me in advance? "I can send someone to greet you." Conor smiled and walked forward, looking very familiar.

"I came here on Master's orders to deal with some scoundrels who tried to persecute the Celestial Alliance." Fenley responded directly.

"Regarding the assassin last night, I have ordered people to investigate.

"I believe there will be results soon, so you don't have to worry about it." Conor said it with a smile.

Fenley said indifferently, "Big Brother, it's not that you want me to worry, but it's hard to disobey Master's orders.

Furthermore, it appears that you are not carrying out your duties correctly.

Noemi was poisoned and assassinated while under your protection.

Without the heroic rescue, I fear Noemi would have met her demise.

Master is very dissatisfied with these circumstances, so he specifically sent me to ensure Noemi and Cassidy's safety."

These words already carried a bit of blame.

Conor's poor protection was a dereliction of duty.
