

Chapter 787

787 AMBIGUOUS STATEMENT

Because Cane had tricked him countless times and lured him into his trap without him even noticing it, and it was too late when he wanted to back away, Lou became very cautious with this creature.

It could be said, he had Cane's weak card within his palm, but for some reason, he couldn't even use it for his own benefit, neither he could think of a way to harm him without implicating Iris. His infatuation to her became the death of him.

This was so wrong in so many levels, but for some reason, he couldn't find a way to make it right.

"Where are you going?! I don't want to go alone with you!"

Regardless of what he said, Lou walked out of the tent and chased after him, leaving Ethan shook his head, thinking the merchant had a hidden crush on the alpha too, despite his denial.

But, in all honesty, Lou simply couldn't stand the people from the Holy Kingdom and chose to deal with Cane instead of that Serafim and her lackeys.

Especially when he learned about the deal between her and Iris. How could that Serafim claim all of Iris's hardwork and her energy for her own? If you didn't have the power, you shouldn't act all might and powerful. It was very shameless of her to bask in people's adoration when in truth she was nothing compared to his red haired girl!

How fake she was!

"Alpha!" Dean and Pax chased after Cane too. This time, the alpha stopped and Lou had to skid in order not to bump onto him. "Please, think thrice before you go meeting him." Dean looked a little bit concern.

"At the very least, you need to bring more people with you," Pax chimed in.

However, instead of bringing more people with him, Cane told them not to come with him. "You can leave, no need to follow me."

Dean and Pax immediately raised a ruckus, which made Lou picked on his ear.

"Alpha! You can't do that! If something happened to you, it will cause more trouble! You can't act recklessly, especially at time like this!" Dean looked panic.

"Alpha! Let's discuss this with beta Jace and Gamma Eth again and find a safest solution how to approach this." Pax tried to coax him.

However, Cane used his alpha's voice to command order. "Stay!"

And with that, the two of them couldn't do much. They were bounded to obey a direct order from his alpha.

"What is going on? Are you going to become suicidal or what?" Lou frowned to see Dean and Pax's strongly against whatever Cane was going to do.

"You, come with me," Cane said to Lou.

"No. I don't want. This must be something dangerous, right? Don't count me in!" Lou immediately refused and the two warriors threw a nasty look at him. "What? My life is also precious, you know. If you don't want your alpha to go, what right do you have to expect me to come with him?"

At this rate, Cane wouldn't get this chatter merchant to move his ass and followed him willingly, unless he dragged him to come with him.

And that's what Cane did. He used the black wisp and made the merchant started moving. This, of course, gave Lou a fright, after all it was still fresh in his memories when Cane used the black wisp on him.

He gave him 'trauma', okay! @www.novelworld.com

"Cane! You bastard! What are you going to do to me now?!" Lou wailed like a little girl. "Don't you dare to touch me! I am warning you! I will tell Iris if you did something inappropriate to me like the last time! Hmph!!!"

Cane silenced him by covering his mouth with the dark wisp because the noise he made hurt his ears.

However, as the spectators, Dean and Pax were stunned. Lou's last words were rather ambiguous... it made their imagination was running wild, but then they shook their head, because the thought of it alone was very impossible to happen!

But...

"What happened between them the last time?" Dean asked to no one in particular.

"No idea..." Pax replied, half wondering the question too.

But then they snapped back to reality. "We need to report this to the beta and the gamma!"

While the two of them told Jace and Ethan about their alpha's decision, Cane and Lou had reached the outer side of their campsite.

Many people saw the black wisp, but the explanation from it was; this was the power that came from the merchant, now everyone knew he was also a magic user, though the Serafim and people from the Holy Kingdom knew it was not the truth, they couldn't say otherwise, because Cane always had something to say to counter their demand for his honest explanation about the dark wisp, in which they couldn't give.

However, people looked confused, because if the black wisp came from the merchant, but why he looked struggled when it wrapped his body? He looked very angry.

"Alpha..." Trion came to him, he wanted to ask where he would go. He was going to prepare a few warriors to accompany him if he wanted to scour the area.

Yet, Cane turned his over down. "You don't need to come." And with that, Cane and the struggling Lou left the campsite.

The secret meeting was a little bit faraway from the campsite, it was at the cliff that separated the two parties.

Only when they were alone in the open area, walking on the rough gravels beneath their feet with the night sky above their head and the warm wind of spring breezed through them, Cane released the black wisp that covered Lou's mouth.

"Damn you, Cane!" That was the first thing that Lou shouted at him. "Let me go! Where are you going to take me?!"

"I am going to meet with Cezi." Cane actually replied to his question, but he still didn't let the merchant freed from the black wisp.

Unfortunately for Lou, he found himself was unable to teleport when he was within the black wisp grasp, but he wouldn't let Cane knew about it, lest the alpha would take advantage of this knowledge. www.novelworld.com

"Who the fuck this Cezi?!" He cursed without holding back at all, his feet were hurt because Cane walked so fast and he couldn't not to follow him. "You have a lot of people, who offered to come with you, why the hell did you take me?! What now? Do you fancy me now?"

Cane gave Lou a nasty look and the merchant felt like he was going to vomit to think what he just said. The image alone was very unsettling.

"Cezi is alpha Derick's firstborn, he sent a secret letter to meet him at the cliff," Cane generously explained thing to Lou, though his explanation was very brief.

"And then you willingly come to meet with him? In the middle of the night? With only me? Instead of taking a bunch of your warriors?" Lou's jaw dropped. "Wow! I must feel honor for you to entrust your life to me..." He clicked his tongue sarcastically. "For your information, I am not going to cover your ass if we were attacked! I thought you were smart! How could you walk into the enemy's territory without thinking twice? Seriously, all it takes is to summon you with a secret letter and you will come?"

Lou couldn't hold back his tongue, as he kept talking along the way, now he forgot about the rough grovel that entered his shoes.

"What is this? Are you missing Iris so much, www.novelworld.com your brain is not working? I told you, right? I am willing to take you to her! You only need to ask. Why are you very stubborn? I am already very generous with you!" Of course, he had his own motive to give him this offer, since he missed his red haired girl too. The last time he saw her was more than a month ago.

Cane suddenly stopped, he closed his eyes and sniffed the air, but Lou thought he would finally snap, having enough of his rambles.

However, when Cane didn't say anything, Lou tilted his head. "What? Do you sense any danger? Are we being surrounded?" Lou tried to look around, but he couldn't move freely thanks to the black wisp. "Hey! At least, let me go from this creepy thing."

After he said that, the black wisp dispersed and he finally could move his body. Lou immediately came closer to Cane. If they were going to be attacked, they would have a better chance if they teamed up. Of course, Lou wouldn't forget about the way Cane treated him like this twice! He would get back at him one day!

"What is it now?" Lou tried to sniff the air, but he was not a shifter, so all he could smell was the earthy scent mixed with another fragrance that he couldn't tell. "Are we in danger?"

"Do you bring magic stone with you?" Cane asked, he opened his eyes. His expression remained impassive.

"Yeah, I bring some with me," Lou replied, he checked on his pocket and counted the magic stone with him. Five magic stones. It would be enough for him to create a portal and escape from this place.

"Good."

After that, Cane walked away again, which made Lou upset.

"Hey! Are you going to die if you explained our situation now?" Lou rushed to follow the alpha.

"Be quiet," Cane said.

"Why?" Lou asked in whispery tone.
