

An Understated Dominance

Chapter 2423

“Oh! It’s actually the two of them?” Looking at Cassidy and Rivka, who walked slowly onto the ring, Dustin couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows slightly, quite surprised.

He knew Cassidy and Rivka had entered the competition, but he didn’t expect them to meet.

Two were excellent Sword Union disciples and the daughter of the Celestial Alliance leader.

The elites of the two major sects were in a showdown on the ring, and it would be a fantastic show to watch.

“Brother Fenley, how confident do you think Cassidy is that she can win?” At this time, Noemi asked suddenly.

Fenley shook his head. “It’s difficult to say. Cassidy’s opponent is not simple. If I’m not mistaken, she should be a Disciple of the Sword Union. She possesses sharp eyes, condensed breath, and unquestionably high cultivation.”

“Disciple of the Sword Union? That’s indeed a bit troublesome.” Noemi frowned slightly.

They all knew that although the number of Sword Union disciples was small, they were all carefully selected elites.

Regardless of their gender or age, we should not undervalue them.

Once upon a time, the Celestial Alliance and the Sword Union had a conflict.

That battle left many Celestial Alliance disciples with psychological trauma, so whenever they heard the name Sword Union, they were a little timid.

Her sister, Cassidy, had a natural talent in martial arts, and with her father’s special training, she was already outstanding among her peers. If she were to face an ordinary warrior, she would naturally have a substantial chance of winning, but it would be completely different if she were to face a disciple of the Sword Union.

“One is passionate, and the other is cold. I really don’t know how to choose between two beauties with extreme temperaments. It’s a headache.”

“Only children make choices. I want them all!”

“Do you think this is a beauty pageant? You want them all? Go and have fun. Are you worthy of this level of beauty? Why don't you take a p!ss and look at yourself?”

The appearance of Cassidy and Rivka left thousands of spectators restless.

Particularly, some young and passionate men, their eyes shining, boldly expressed their love.

There were not many female warriors participating in this competition, and a woman of such beauty was even more rare.

Each of them, taken out individually, could cause quite a stir.

Moreover, two beauties appeared simultaneously and were about to engage in a fight on the stage.

This kind of scene naturally attracted more attention.

They really wanted to see what it was like when beauties fought.

If they were to reveal their beauty during the fight, the audience would be able to feast their eyes.

Thinking of this, many people became excited.
